National Academies Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Discouraging Terrorism: Some Implications of 9/11, Panel on Understanding Terrorists in Order to Deter Terrorism, Center for Social and Economic Studies, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, National Research Council, National Academy of Sciences, This report addresses the question of what terrorists hold in value. This question is posed in order to assess some means and strategies for deterring, deflecting, or preventing terrorist activities. The report approaches the question on several levels, moving from the use of short-term deterrent strategies to the modification of the broader contexts and conditions conducive to terrorist activities in the long run. The report focuses on contemporary Islamic extremist terrorism but deals with generic dimensions in many instances.
