Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Matter and Mind or Immortality, and Graphic Humorous Pen-Portraits Ladies and Gentlemen: - I am not here to teach you something new. I desire simply to present to you some of the pebbles gathered here and there on the hoary shore of Time, containing some suggestions and deductions by your humble servant. What is matter? And secondly: What relation does mind sustain to organism in this life and in the hereafter? We speak here of matter as popularly understood - that which we recognize with our senses; that is: see and feel it. That something which occupies space, has form and weight. But the two senses of seeing and feeling are not the only ones by which we recognize matter; though these are the principal monitors which make us acquainted with the presence of matter in its grosser form - yet we find that the other three senses - as smelling, hearing and tasting, apprise us of the objective world around us. By the ear we recognize matter in motion, as it - through its effect sound, enters the auricular tube and strikes the auditory nerve with its drum and its drum-sticks - which latter then apprise the sensorium of the mission, and nature of the approaching object - its shape, rapidity, and in what direction it comes. As soon as a projectile has left its place of rest and has entered the arena of the atmosphere, it sets in motion the particles in the air - which are in its course - and the result is sound; for it is only by the friction of the moving particles that sound is produced - to-wit: by...
