FEES AND DEPOSITS Tuition is free in all divisions of the University to students who are residents of the State of Missouri. Non-residents of the state are required to pay a tuition fee of $10 a semester, except in the Graduate School. A library, hospital, and incidental fee of $12 a semester is required of all students, except those in the short winter courses in agriculture, and those especially exempt by law or by rules of the Curators of the University of Missouri. A fee of $2 is charged for each diploma and a fee of $1 is charged for each certificate given. In laboratory courses fees and deposits are required to pay for material used, depreciation of equipment and damage to University property. In some laboratory courses only a fee is required, in some both fee and a deposit, and in others only a deposit. For full statement of laboratory fees and deposits see pages 73 to 76 of the University of Missouri catalog. In the military department, where all men students must take instruction during their freshman or sophomore year, a deposit of $10 for each dress uniform and of $5 for each service uniform is required. For details see page 420 of the annual catalog. LIVING EXPENSES The necessary expenses of living for one year are estimated in the...
