Yet one of them has been a member of three successive National Republican Conventions and another has represented his county in the Georgia legislature, while a third has served two terms in the Texas legislature, being elected by the aid of the votes of Southern white men in a predominantly white community. 80CIAL REFORM. And it is not out of place to say a few words in this connection concerning the remarkable work which this last named graduate, Itobert L. Smith has been able to do. His maiden speech in the legislature helped to defeat a bill which has never since been resurrected proposing to compil the railroads of the State to practice race discrimination by obliging their white and colored passengers to occupy separate waiting rooms at the stations. He was also instrumental in securing the passage of an antilynching law with such effective provisions that lynchings in the state have practically ceased. But his most conspicuous service has been rendered to the Negro farmers of his State. This has been done through the organization of a farmers Improvement Society, with many branches, whose members are pledged to become land owners, to diversify their crops, to improve and beautify their homes, to fight the credit system by buying-only for cash on a co-operative plan, and to raise their own supples so far as possible. The fact that he can report to-day 86 brandies of his society scattered over the State of Texas with...
