.Philosophy begins in wonder . and comedian Robin Williams is a philosopher. Whether he is playing Peter Pan or standing on a bare stage talking about his newborn child, this man expresses a sense of wonder at the closely-seen marvels of new life and a sense of the absurd about grown-ups. Wonder is special domain of children and those souls who-may-grow-old-but-refuse-to-grow-up in our daily-increasing, global-conformity, peer-pressure world of standardized expectations. Robin Williams and Jesus of Nazareth--now there s a pair! But unless you become like these little children, you shall not enter the Kingdom of Heaven sounds like a blessing or a threat on our style of living. Style or manner of living goes to the heart of being human. Consider: The inanimate world does not possess a style or a set of mannerisms. Rather, our experience of it is as a lump of something that we manipulate in chemistry lab or woodworking class. The evolutionary folks like I. A. Oparin teach about atoms evolving greater stability as they grow to mega-molecule virus size...
