Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 202 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A sexy contemporary romance with a woman who has ignored what she wanted and the smoldering hero who will open her eyes to everything she could have. Too hot. On a stormy night in Portland, Oregon, cynical ad exec Lily Bishop crashes into a stunning classic car driven by a dark, handsome stranger with strong hands. His powerful touch makes her remember old dreams she thought she abandoned twenty years ago. Back then, she traded her MFA in photography for a lucrative advertising position that twists people's deepest desires into just another data point. Zero to 60, baby. Though he's struggling to take his hot rods to the big time, mechanic Raine Reyes won't accept help from anyone -- certainly not an uptown woman like Lily whose miles-wide reckless streak brings out the repressed bad boy in him. He knows he should run from her offer to be the new face of her next expensive advertising campaign, but he's too tempted. by her. He sees right through her to the forgotten needs, the neglected...
